

One colour scale across all six panels: magnitudes comparable across counties. NYC's unconstrained spike (Administrative = -190) dominates, as it should.

